Chamber to Host Ribbon Cutting for Randimonium

New Lenox, IL (April 20, 2017) — The New Lenox Chamber of Commerce excited to help welcome Randimonium Art Studio to the New Lenox community with a ribbon cutting on Saturday, May 6, 2017. The ribbon cutting will take place at 9:00 AM at 14423 Edison Dr, Unit B, New Lenox, IL 60451.

Randimonium is owned by Kate Ahrens, a local artist who is excited to share her passion for art. Kate lives in New Lenox with her fiancé and their children. “Between us we have five children, ages 13, 14, 15, 16 and 18. Having my business in the community where we live is important to our family. I want to have our children to be involved and participate in the business,” shared Kate.

Randimonium will offer kids painting classes, wine and paint nights, private parties, and more. Kate hopes that she will be able to expand from acrylic and canvas painting and introduce new art mediums overtime.

“Painting is fun! It's therapeutic. It's relaxing. It gets deep into your spirit and changes you. Most of all we want people to understand that just because imagination doesn't make it to canvas without effort - doesn't mean you can't do it. You can. Everyone has an artist hidden inside,” shared Kate.

For more information about Randimonium or to register for a class, visit their website at www.Randimonium.com or call 815-546-5560.
