Chamber Welcomes Velocity Home Inspection, Inc. with Ribbon Cutting

New Lenox, IL (August 16, 2016) — The New Lenox Chamber of Commerce excited to help welcome Velocity Home Inspection, Inc. to the New Lenox business community with a ribbon cutting. Chamber members gathered around Johnathon and Teresa Fitzgerald in front of Village Hall of Thursday, August 11, 2016.

Velocity Home Inspection, Inc. offers certified home inspections. This encompasses the interior, exterior, roofing, structure, plumbing, electrical, heating and cooling of your home. They also do radon measurements and testing.

“At Velocity Home Inspection, Inc. we are committed to the extra care in providing our clients with an excellent home inspection experience. Our focus on client satisfaction regarding safety in their home for themselves and loved ones is our biggest focus.

Our clients choose to work with us because of our dedication, expertise, and attention to details. The benefit to our clients is a dependable and insightful experience that exceeds industry standards,” shared Teresa Fitzgerald.

They also focus on giving back through their Homes for Heroes program which honors those that serve our communities and country, including firefighters, law enforcement, military, healthcare workers/EMS and teachers. Teresa and Jonathon descend from a long line of public servants, in fact Teresa is a former police officer. “Being able to honor those that serve is near and dear to our hearts. Qualifying heroes receive a discount on their certified home inspections,” stated Johnathon.
